English Intervention in Turkish Affairs.
LONDON, Nov. 2.—A Vienna dispatch is published in the Paris journals stating that a telegram from Constantinople represents that the relations between England and Turkey are greatly strained. England has sent to the Porte an ultimatum demanding the execution of the reforms in Asiatic Turkey. If the demand is not complied with it is believed that the Sultan will be deposed and replaced by his son.

If the demand is not complied with it is believed that the Sultan will be deposed and replaced by his son.

The foregoing is probably a grossly exaggerated form of Reuter's telegram from Constantinople to-day, which says Sir Austen Layard, the British ambassador, will shortly present to the Porte a note insisting on the execution of the promised reforms in Asiatic Turkey. Reuter's telegram further says: "Sir Austen Stirring Up the Burmese to Hostility.

London, Sep. 2. (The Standard.)—The dispatch explaining the object of the despatch of Admiral Hornby's squadron to Turkish waters, semi-officially replies that the squadron would remain for the present at Vovlah, but eventually might proceed to some other Turkish port, as England would not tolerate the oppression of the Christians in Asiatic Turkey.

A Catastrophe Imminent.
LONDON, Nov. 3.—A dispatch from Constantinople to the Times reports that Mahmoud Nedim Pasha will doubtless soon become Grand Vizier, but the state of affairs on all sides indicates that if something is not done quickly there will be a catastrophe.

Heavy rains have fallen in the Argentine States, dispelling fears of drought. The wheat crop in the Santa Fe district is in very fine condition.

THE LOUISIANA TICKET.

Mr. Gallagher's Letter of Denunciation

ST. JOSEPH, LA., October 28, 1879.
Hon. A. J. Dumont, President State Central Committee of the Republican Party of Louisiana:
DEAR SIR: Yours dated October 22 reached me yesterday. It is with great surprise that I learn the action of the convention toward myself. Had the slightest intimation reached me in time such action was proposed I would have prevented some little trouble. Although always deeply interested the political arena. While I firmly believe that the principles of the National Republican party are the best for the Government of this Nation; while I believe in a strong National Government for National affairs; in a dollar that is worth 100 cents; in protection to all in equal rights; and while I believe that the idea of a soft South has been, is and if it prevails, always will be an "hind of woes" to the Southern people, I am not vain enough to think that any effort of mine

On a free vote and fair count, and I feel confident the ticket will win in December, whether or not it is or not, and without a free vote, the fair count the name of George Washington himself would avail nothing. I sincerely think the cotton ginners lost for their own sakes above I mean.

Very respectfully your obedient servant,
JAMES M. GILLESPIE.

General Adams Confident of Success.
Secretary Schurz yesterday received a dispatch from Special Agent Adams that the instructions of the Department had been received and would be fully carried out. Chief Oury has ordered the White River Utes to come to at to investigate the White River massacre and where those found guilty are to be surrendered. The dispatch was dated from Albuquerque, N. M., Col., General Adams having arrived there yesterday morning. He will proceed from that point to Denver to take the testimony of the Meeker ladies and of Mrs. Price. The commission is to be ready for its work on the 28th instant. Associated Press.

Serious Fire at Mound City, Ill.
CAIRO, ILL., Nov. 2.—A fire at Mound City this afternoon destroyed over one-third of the town. A telegram was received here at 3 p.m. asking for assistance, and in response three hood. The fire had gained great headway, and it was impossible for the fire department to accomplish anything more than prevent its spread. From sixty to eighty houses were burned, among which are the court-house with all the records; G. F. Meyers' store and residence, Meyer & Surdman's slave factory and Reel's flouring mill. The Calve & Vinton railroad had five box cars burned, and in the roof of J. Zaene's saloon, and with still north wind blowing spread very rapid. A rough estimate fixes the loss at about $70,000 or $80,000.
